Discuss and consider action regarding storm debris removal resulting from the December 2013 ice storm that caused widespread damage in the City of Sachse.

Executive Summary

A significant ice storm that started on December 5th, 2013 caused widespread damage to trees and other vegetation in Sachse. The week following the storm, the City established a centralized debris collection site on the Animal Shelter property for residents wanting to clean up their properties prior to the scheduled bulk waste collection week (December 23rd - 28th). Storm debris removal will begin during this bulk waste collection week. The purpose of this item is to provide Council with the opportunity to continue debris removal beyond the scheduled bulk collection week.
